CITATIONS to the MERITORIOUS SERVICE MEDAL (Military) (MSM)

ASH, Daniel James Maurice

MSM CD

CG: 27 April 2013

Major

GH: 20 March 2013

Primary CF Member of RANA Radio FM a local Radio Station Linking Kandahar to Canadians

DOI: June 2007 to May 2011

"From June 2007 to May 2011, Petty Officer 1st Class Ash was the primary military member of RANA FM, a local radio station which linked Kandahar civilians to Canadian and coalition forces operating in Afghanistan. His decisiveness and dedication while verifying radio broadcasts and developing procedures to deal with telephone calls regarding insurgent activities, directly contributed to the enhancement of in-theatre intelligence. Petty Officer 1st Class Ash's professionalism and leadership allowed RANA FM to become a vital intelligence asset for operations in Kandahar."

AUGER, Daniel

MSM CD

CG: 27 April 2013

Major

GH: 20 March 2013

Commander of Ops & COS Operational Mentoring and Liaison Team Afghanistan

DOI: April to October 2009

"As commander of operations and chief of staff of the Operational Mentoring and Liaison Team in Afghanistan, from April to October 2009, Major Auger distinguished himself through his leadership and professionalism. Faced with an increased number of units under Canadian mentorship, he ensured that the teams were properly equipped to meet the challenges of their mission and command expectations. Major Auger's coordination and tactical acumen greatly improved the operational efficiency of the Afghan units."

BLAIS, Gérald

MSM CD

CG: 27 April 2013

Chief Warrant Officer

DOI: 2012

This MSM was not gazetted.

Chief Warrant Officer Brissette was the Operations Sergeant-Major for the Deputy Commander for the NATO Training Mission Afghanistan (NTM-A) from April 2012 — April 2013. During this time he partnered first with Major-General D. Michael Day and then Major-General Ferron. His responsibility and area of influence was the entire NTM-A training mission, which included the following organizations: Army; Police; Special Forces; Air force; and Support. There were 37 nations and civilian/contracting organizations which fell under the NTM-A umbrella, making it a truly partnered mission.

Chief Warrant Officer Brissette was in a position to view the full spectrum of the Afghanistan National Security Force (ANFS) progress and transition as it moved to assume full control of the stability and security of Afghanistan as the mission surged forward to the 2014 deadline. At the conclusion of this tour of duty he had completed more than 30 months total service in Afghanistan and been part of the final chapter of the Afghanistan campaign. As Sergeant-Major of the Deputy Commanding General — Operations within the NATO Training Mission in Afghanistan, Chief Warrant Officer Brissette was deservedly cited for his "outstanding leadership". He has served in The Royal Canadian Regiment from 1987 onwards and been a member of the Special Forces community since 1995. Chief Warrant Officer Brissette has served as the Regimental Sergeant-Major of the Canadian Special Operations Regiment (CSOR).

His second MSM was gazetted in the Canada Gazette of 24 October 2014 in the rank of Chief Warrant Officer.

Awarded Member of the Order of Military Merit (MMM) as per the Canada Gazette of 06 June 2015 in the rank of Chief Warrant Officer.
