Commander Jon Jeffrey Hutchinson, MSM, CD, RCN Commanding Officer HMCS Winnipeg

A native of Middle Musquodoboit, Nova Scotia, Cdr Hutchinson joined the Royal Canadian Navy in 1991 and has sailed extensively on both the east and west coasts.

He assumed command of HMCS Winnipeg from Cdr Pascal Belhumer on Jan. 16, 2016, while alongside Penang, Malaysia, during the vessel’s 2015 Operation Active Endeavour deployment. Cdr Hutchinson took his new charge from Penang to Singapore, on the south tip of the Malayan Peninsula, and from there to Tokyo, and then back to Esquimalt via Pearl Harbor, arriving Feb. 22, 2016. Cdr Hutchinson again took Winnipeg to sea on the heels of a mid-April namesake city visit, with May 2016 seeing him lead the ship through Ship Without Air Detachment training, Basic Single Ship Readiness Training, Replenishment At Sea (RAS) Force Generation, and the Fleet Navigating Officer course. The ship’s company subsequently employed lessons learned during numerous exercises off of Southern California with the United States Navy and United States Coast Guard over September and October, a highlight of which was San Diego Fleet Week. Winnipeg spent winter of 2016/17 preparing to sail for Poseidon Cutlass, a five-month voyage throughout the Indo-Pacific Region, designed as a demonstration of Canada’s commitment to regional stability and security through interoperable naval operations and diplomatic liaisons.

Cdr Hutchinson took the ship out of Esquimalt March 6, then across the Pacific Ocean via California, Pearl Harbor, Guam and the Philippines. The ship spent two weeks in Port Klang, Malaysia, and then sailed through the Straits of Malacca, into the Indian Ocean destined for its westernmost port of call, Mumbai, India. He then brought the crew back through the Straits of Malacca via Sri Lanka, Singapore, and Jeju and Busan, South Korea. En route, he oversaw the successful completion of Exercise Pacific Guardian from June 7-21, a multinational endeavour between the Canadian, Japanese, and New Zealand Navies. Cdr Hutchinson next brought Winnipeg into Kure and Tokyo, Japan, before sailing across the Pacific yet again, via Pearl Harbor. The ship engaged in RAS force generation with Almirante Montt, setting future ships and their crews up for success by training Canadian crewmen on board the Chilean tanker. Amidst great fanfare, Winnipeg finally returned to Esquimalt on 08 August 2017.

A few weeks later, the ship’s company assembled on Winnipeg’s flight deck by divisions for the command change ceremony. Lt(N) Squires led the assembly through strong and thoughtful prayers. Lt(N) Henderson served as Master of Ceremonies, and introduced Commodore Zwick, Cdr Hutchinson, and Cdr Stefanson. Cdr Hutchinson spoke to the ship’s company, and made clear his appreciation for serving as Winnipeg’s Commanding Officer – the pinnacle of a MARS Officer’s career. Employing quotes from Joseph Conrad and Admiral Nelson, Cdr Hutchinson humorously voiced his thoughts on captaincy, and offered some advice to Cdr Stefanson. Commodore Zwick then thanked Cdr Hutchinson for his tenure as Winnipeg’s Commanding Officer, and praised Cdr Stefanson’s proven abilities to lead the ship and its company through its future trials and tribulations.

Commander, now Captain(N) Jon Jeffrey Hutchinson, MSM, CD, RCN
Commanding Officer CFB Esquimalt

Captain(N) (Capt(N)) Jon Jeffrey (Jeff) Hutchinson, a native of Middle Musquodoboit, NS, joined the Canadian Armed Forces in June 1991 and immediately underwent Basic Officer Training in Chilliwack, BC. He thereafter completed two years at Royal Roads Military College in Victoria, BC and finished his undergraduate education at the Royal Military College of Canada in Kingston, ON in 1995 graduating with a Bachelor of Arts in History.

After completing basic naval officer training at Naval Officer Training Centre Venture, Capt(N) Hutchinson transferred to the east coast and earned his Bridge Watchkeeping Certificate in Her Majesty's Canadian Ship (HMCS) Montreal in 1997. Thereafter he received his Anti-Submarine Warfare Officer's and then his Fleet Navigating Officer's qualifications and served in both instances in HMCS Halifax. In 2000, Capt(N) Hutchinson went ashore to serve as a Squadron Commander at the Royal Military College of Canada. In 2003, he returned to HMCS Halifax to serve as Deck Officer. He received his Operations Room Officer's qualification in 2006 and transferred to the west coast where he served first as Weapons and then Combat Officer in HMCS Vancouver and as Operations Officer for Sea Training Pacific. Capt(N) Hutchinson was appointed Executive Officer in HMCS Calgary from July 2011 to October 2012 and in HMCS Algonquin to June 2013. He was appointed Commanding Officer of HMCS Winnipeg in January 2016 and deployed in company with HMCS Ottawa to the Indo-Asia Pacific region in 2017 where the ship conducted exercises and operations with the United States Navy, the Japanese Maritime Self-Defense Force, Royal Australian Navy, the Armada de Chile and Republic of Korea Navy, and PASSEXs with the navies of India and Sri Lanka.

He is a graduate of the Joint Command and Staff Program at the Canadian Forces College in Toronto, graduating in 2011 with a Masters in Defense Studies. Capt(N) Hutchinson completed his Senior Military Education as part of the Naval Command College at the United States Naval War College in Newport, Rhode Island.

Capt(N) Hutchinson has worked in a staff capacity for the Director Defence Programme Coordination and most recently as Director Naval Strategic Management at National Defence Headquarters in Ottawa, ON. He assumed the role of Commander Canadian Forces Base Esquimalt in July 2021.
