ALBERTA CENTENNIAL MEDAL

2005

TERMS

The Alberta Centennial Medal celebrates Alberta's first 100 years by paying tribute to Albertans whose achievements have benefited their fellow citizens, their community and their province.

To ensure that the medal was inclusive and recognized a diversity of contributions, the criteria for nominations were broad. The medal was awarded to living men, women and youth who:

- have made significant contributions to their fellow citizens, their community and to Alberta, and
- are Canadian citizens that reside in, or have resided in, Alberta.

Representatives from provincial organizations, governments and other groups made the nominations.

DESCRIPTION

A circular medal, cast in bronze and plated in gold.

OBVERSE

The Coat of Arms of Alberta in the centre with ALBERTA CENTENNIAL in an annulus at the top and 1905 - 2005 at the bottom.

REVERSE

A large maple leaf in the centre with the Provincial shield at its centre and in an annulus around the rim at the top HONOURING OUTSTANDING ALBERTANS

RIBBON

Blue edge, wider gold stripe, narrow green stripe, white stripe, narrow dark pink stripe, white stripe, narrow green stripe, wider gold stripe and blue edge. The colours of the medal's ribbon symbolize Alberta's spirit and strengths. Blue and gold, Alberta's provincial colours are most prominent in the ribbon.

All the colours in the ribbon are taken from Alberta's official emblems and heraldry.

Blue - clear skies and sparkling lakes

Gold - wheat fields and resource wealth

Green - forests

White - mountains

Pink - wild rose

MOUNTING

A bronze bar with a hole in the centre with a link through it attaching to a ring at the top of the medal.

DATE

The medal was established in March 2005.

ISSUED

Approximately 8,000 medals were issued.

COMMEMORATIVE MEDAL for the CENTENNIAL of SASKATCHEWAN
2005

TERMS

The Commemorative Medal for the Centennial of Saskatchewan (Saskatchewan Centennial Medal) is a one-time commemorative medal marking the province's 100th anniversary in 2005. The medal recognizes individuals who have made significant contributions to society and honours outstanding achievements.

Criteria for this medal are a broad range of contributions to the community and to the province through leadership, voluntarism, community involvement and outstanding personal achievements. Only individuals, not groups, can be nominated. Posthumous nominations are not accepted.

A certain number of individuals will receive the medal by virtue of their office, such as provincial and federal elected members, judges, Aboriginal leaders, and community and municipal leaders. Other recipients are selected based on the recommendation of governmental and non-governmental organizations and Members of the Legislative Assembly.

DESCRIPTION

A circular, bronze medal 36-mm in diameter.

OVERSE

The provincial motto under a wreath of western red lilies, surmounted by the St. Edward's Crown. The words "SASKATCHEWAN" is around the top of the rim and 1905-2005 around the bottom of the rim.

REVERSE

The Saskatchewan shield of arms

RIBBON

A gold ribbon with two narrow green stripes.

ISSUED

Approximately 4,000 medals were presented by the Lieutenant Governor or her delegate at events held throughout Saskatchewan's Centennial year.

SASKATCHEWAN VOLUNTEER MEDAL

SVM

(Province of Saskatchewan Award)

TERMS

Awarded by the Saskatchewan government to offer public recognition for those individuals who share with others the strong volunteer values of the province of Saskatchewan and who has provided, without reward or gain, outstanding volunteer service or exceptional community involvement in an area that is beyond the performance of the individual's normal duties or the exercise of the responsibilities of a profession to which the individual belongs.

All current residents or former long-term residents of the province are eligible other than elected federal or provincial representatives or members of the judiciary, who are not eligible while they are in office. Posthumous awards are not made.

Any individual, group of people, or organization can nominate somebody with the key question being: "has the person made a significant contribution to the province through volunteer work".

A maximum of ten (10) medals are presented by the Lieutenant-Governor of Saskatchewan each year.

A silver, circular medal designed by Mr. Jack Glasser of Regina.

OBVERSE

The Saskatchewan Shield of Arms surmounted by the Crown in red, green, black and white enamels is in the centre with the words in black NOS IPSOS DEDIMUS (we give of ourselves) around the top of the disc and SASKATCHEWAN around the bottom of the disc.

MOUNTING

A 'V' mounting attached to the bottom of a straight bar (V = Volunteer).

RIBBON

The 32-mm wide ribbon has three equal stripes of green, gold, and green.

OTHER

Recipients are also honoured with a lapel pin bearing the Saskatchewan Shield of Arms with the 'V'.
