03/08/02	GUILBAULT, J.-R. Roger	Lieutenant-Colonel	CD	RESIGNED

Notice is hereby given that, further to a request by F.J.R. Guibault to resign from the Order of Military Merit, the Governor General has terminated the appointment, effective 11 March 2002. Ottawa 2 July 2002 – Canada Gazette of 3 August 2002.

Roger Guilbault, 55, of Chelsea, pleaded guilty on 08 March 2001 to the charges of sexually assaulting seven cadets more than 20 years before. At various times from 1972 to 1981, Guilbault inappropriately touched seven cadets between the ages of 13 to 16. In the case of four of the victims, there was mutual masturbation.

Notice is hereby given that the appointment of Lieutenant-Colonel Deborah Miller, CD, to the Order of Military Merit was terminated by Ordinance signed by the Governor General on 22 December 2014.

On 06 October 2014, Lt.-Col. Deborah Miller, a high-ranking military officer based in Kingston, was sentenced to a severe reprimand and a $5,000 fine on Tuesday morning at a court martial held in Currie Hall at Royal Military College. Miller, 57, pleaded guilty to three counts of conduct to the prejudice of good order and discipline for wearing military medals and ribbons on her uniform she was not authorized to wear.

EMBERLEY, Dennis Walter, North Vancouver - born Dieter Werner Eger died July 15, 2006 after a short illness. Born November 11, 1925, in Frankfurt, Germany, Dennis Emberley served with the British and Canadian Army, and was honoured with awards including the Member of the British Empire and the Officer of the Order of Military Merit. His career included NATO duties in Egypt and Germany where he served with great distinction. Dennis was a committed husband and father, a deep religious believer, and a defender of conservative principles. He enjoyed a liberality of spirit, which made him much cherished. Surviving are his wife Ursula Emberley, and his sons Peter Emberley of Ottawa and Philip Emberley and wife Caroline of Victoria. A Mass of Christian Burial will be held on Friday, July 21st at 2:30 pm at St. Stephen's Catholic Church on Mountain Highway in North Vancouver. If desired, donations for much needed research into Parkinson's disease would be greatly appreciated. Published in the Vancouver Sun on 7/20/2006
