Commanding Officer – HMCS Fredericton DOI: July to December 2021

"While deployed to the Baltic, Irish, Norwegian and North seas as commanding officer of HMCS Fredericton from July to December 2021, Commander Graham demonstrated extraordinary tactical expertise. He brought the ship back to safety following a major fire in its main engine room, off the coast of Norway. Moreover, as flagship captain to the Commander Standing NATO Maritime Group 1, he expertly led the multinational task group during several exercises and operations. Commander Graham was an outstanding ambassador for NATO and Canada."

"He was the Commanding Officer of HMCS Fredericton from Jan to Dec. 2021 while Canada commanded Standing NATO Maritime Group One."

He is a graduate of the University of Ottawa with a BA in History attending from 1995 to 2000. He also has a Master of Defence Studies from the Royal Military College, Kingston from the period 2015 to 2016
Following his training as a MARS Officer, he became the Navy Ammunition Technical Officer from July 2013 to July 2016.
From July 2016 to July 2018, he served as the Executive Officer of HMCS Regina. He then became the Above Water Warfare Requirements Section Head of the RCN from July 2018 to July 2020 in Gatineau, Quebec.
From July 2020 to February 2022, he was the Commanding Officer of HMCS Fredericton for 20 months. From February 2022 to May 2023, he was a Language Student at the CF Language School in Ottawa.

He is currently the Director of Naval Requirements from May 2023 based in Ottawa.

MacKEY, Patrick Michael MSC CD CG: 08 February 2025
Chief Petty Officer First Class - RCN GH: 05 October 2025
Coxen of HMCS Fredericton DOI: July to December 2021

"While deployed to the Baltic region as coxswain onboard HMCS Fredericton from July to December 2021, Chief Petty Officer 1st Class Mackey distinguished himself as a mentor and leader. This was acutely apparent on November 18, 2021, when the ship experienced a major fire in the forward engine room that caused a prolonged loss of propulsion in extremely hazardous weather conditions. CPO1 Mackey's exceptional professionalism directly enabled the crew of Fredericton to successfully complete its mission and brought credit to Canada."

"He was the Coxen of HMCS Fredericton from Jan to Dec. 2021 while Canada commanded Standing NATO Maritime Group One."

Medals: MSC – SWA with bar Afghanistan – SSM with bar NATO – CD and bar

CPO1 Patrick Mackey enrolled in the Canadian Forces as a Signalman (262) in his hometown of St. John's, Newfoundland and commenced boot camp on 1 April 1996 at the age of 21. On completion of Basic Training in Saint-Jean, Quebec he attended the inaugural Naval Communicator (277) course in Esquimalt, British Columbia. Upon completion of trades training, he was then posted to HMCS Montréal.

From 1997 to 2001 he was posted to a number of different ships including HMCS Provider, HMCS St. John's, and HMCS Athabaskan where he completed two NATOs prior to his first shore posting to Trinity in the summer of 2001.

In January of 2003, he became the first steady state 277 to be promoted to Master Seaman and was then posted to HMCS Toronto where he completed his first major deployment on OP ALTAIR. In May of 2005 he was posted to MARLANTHQ N31 and subsequently promoted to Petty Officer 2nd Class where he once again became the first 277 to obtain that rank.

In January of 2007 he was posted to HMCS Charlottetown where he was deployed on OP ALTAIR for a second time. Upon completion of his deployment in June of 2008, he was posted to MARITIME OPERATIONS GROUP 5 as the Information Management Manager where he also attended his 6B course and became the first Naval Communicator to be promoted to Petty Officer 1st Class. During his time ashore, CPO1 Mackey completed the Officer Program of Military Education.

In July of 2010 CPO1 Mackey was posted to HMCS Iroquois as the Senior Naval Communicator until being posted to CANADIAN FLEET ATLANTIC as the Fleet Senior Naval Communicator in July of 2011.

In July of 2013 he became the first Naval Communicator to achieve the rank of Chief Petty Officer Second class where he was then subsequently posted to MARLANT Visits and Protocol. CPO1 Mackey remained at Visits and Protocol until May of 2015 until he was posted to HMCS Halifax as the Combat Chief.

In 2016, CPO1 Mackey was selected to attend the NCM Executive Professional Development Programme at the Royal Military College in Kingston, Ontario. His studies mainly focused on Psychology and International Relations. In 2017 he then attended Second Language Training until June 2018.

On completion of French training CPO1 Mackey was selected to be the Executive Assistant to the Royal Canadian Navy Command Chief Petty Officer until July of 2020 until he was appointed as Coxen of HMCS Fredericton.

In July of 2020, CPO1 Mackey was appointed as COXN on HMCS Fredericton where he deployed on OP REASSURANCE. In 2022 he was appointed as COXN of Sea Training Atlantic until his appointment as the Atlantic Fleet Chief in June 2024.
