Service in Afghanistan

AUBÉ, Étienne
Master Corporal – Royal 22e Régiment
R22eR Battle Group – JTF Afghanistan

“On 17 July 2009, Master Corporal Aubé was conducting compound searches in Afghanistan when he came upon a heavily booby-trapped structure. After ordering his section out of the building, he entered alone to investigate and struck an improvised explosive device. Despite being gravely wounded, he calmed the soldiers who had rushed to his aid, guided them through his immediate care requirements and briefed them on what to expect inside. Amidst these extremely dire circumstances, Master Corporal Aubé never wavered from his responsibilities, inspiring his soldiers and ensuring they remained confident.”

Master Corporal Aubé lost his right leg at the knee, and had his left ring finger and pinky amputated. He also suffered a serious fracture and nerve damage.

BELVAL, Sébastien Joseph Yves
Sergeant – Royal Canadian Artillery
R22eR Battle Group – JTF Afghanistan

“When his company was attacked in Afghanistan on 04 June 2009, Sergeant Belval fearlessly moved to the roof of his fortification to determine the enemy’s location and to direct artillery fire. Remaining in his exposed position throughout the battle, he braved intense enemy fire to provide information that was critical to delivering decisive fire support. His outstanding composure, technical skill and courage under fire were instrumental in repelling the attack and defending their position.”

“For outstanding composure, technical skill and courage under fire, which were instrumental in repelling an enemy attack and defending his position in Afghanistan on 04 June 2009.”

CORBEIL, Isabelle
Master-Bombardier (now Sergeant) – Royal Canadian Artillery
R22eR Battle Group – JTF Afghanistan
CG: 21 May 2011
GH: 13 May 2011
DOI: 23 August 2009

"On 23 August 2009, Master Corporal Corbeil’s company was conducting an operation in Afghanistan when they were surprised by a group of insurgents who immediately unleashed a heavy weight of fire on their position. Despite being under direct enemy fire, Master Corporal Corbeil coordinated multiple artillery strikes that enabled the capture of the enemy position. Her ability to remain composed under intense fire and adjust artillery orders in response to the changing battle conditions were instrumental to the operational success of her company."

"For outstanding composure, technical skill and courage under fire that enabled the capture of the enemy position following a surprise attack in Afghanistan on 23 August 2009."

CÔTÉ, Joseph Jean Denis Justin
Warrant Officer – Royal 22e Régiment
Company Sergeant Major – R22eR Battle Group JTF Afghanistan
CG: 21 May 2011
GH: 13 May 2011
DOI: 23 June to 14 July 2009

"From 23 June to 14 July 2009, Warrant Officer Côté’s efforts as Company Sergeant-Major ensured the success of numerous combat operations in Afghanistan. Whether under intense enemy fire or operating in close proximity to civilians, his experience and composure provided a calming influence on the company’s junior members and ensured the combat team was fully prepared to meet all challenges. Sharing the risk with his soldiers throughout the operations, Warrant Officer Côté’s frontline leadership was instrumental to the company’s combat success."

CÔTÉ, Joseph Michel
Sergeant – Royal 22e Régiment
Section Commander – R22eR Battle Group JTF Afghanistan
CG: 21 May 2011
GH: 13 May 2011
DOI: 08 June 2009

"On 08 June 2009, a soldier in Sergeant Côté’s platoon was wounded by an improvised explosive device in Afghanistan. As section commander, Sergeant Côté was instrumental in establishing security, treating the casualty and calling for medical evacuation. Approximately 45 minutes later, the platoon was ambushed by insurgents as it continued its operation. Despite the recent medical evacuation of their comrade, Sergeant Côté’s outstanding frontline leadership and precise direction kept his soldiers focused and enabled them to win the firefight and defeat the ambush."

GIRARD, Simon
Master-Corporal– Royal 22e Régiment
R22eR Battle Group – JTF Afghanistan

On 08 June 2009, Master Corporal Girard’s platoon was ambushed by insurgents in Afghanistan as it returned from the scene of an improvised explosive device attack. Despite intense fire and lack of cover, he quickly moved forward under his own initiative to engage the enemy with his machine gun. Master Corporal Girard demonstrated courage by aggressively and fearlessly engaging the enemy. His decisive actions were critical to winning the firefight and defeating the enemy.

LACOMBE, David
Captain
Mentorship of Deputy Chief of Police in Panjwayi District, Afghanistan

“From March to October 2009, Captain Lacombe greatly improved the capacity of the Afghan Uniform Police (AUP) in Panjwayi District, Afghanistan. His constant mentorship of the Deputy Chief of Police and his staff was instrumental in strengthening the AUP leadership and legitimizing their policing activities. Despite being frequently under fire and suffering two improvised explosive device attacks, Captain Lacombe’s dedicated efforts enabled the destruction of enemy supply caches, disrupted insurgent freedom of movement and contributed to the acquisition of valuable intelligence.”

DUFF, Evan
Master-Corporal – Princess Patricia’s Canadian Light Infantry
3 PPCLI Battle Group – JTF Afghanistan

On 23 November 2009, Sergeant Duff, then Master Corporal, demonstrated outstanding frontline leadership following an improvised explosive device attack in Afghanistan and the ensuing enemy ambush. Remaining composed, he immediately returned fire and rallied a group of Afghan soldiers to engage and repel the enemy. Once contact was broken, he directed the soldiers to perform a sweep that uncovered two additional devices. Sergeant Duff’s fearless and decisive actions won the firefight, secured the scene and minimized friendly casualties.

MATTHEWS-PESTANA, Ian
--
Master-Corporal
JTF Battle Group - Afghanistan

"On 28 October 2009, Master Corporal Matthews-Pestana displayed extraordinary professionalism and calmness following an improvised explosive device that killed his patrol commander in the Panjwaji District, Afghanistan. Despite being wounded in the blast, under enemy fire and without communications, he demonstrated outstanding initiative and composure by deploying smoke to signal his patrol’s presence and their need for assistance to nearby friendly forces. Master Corporal Matthews-Pestana’s decisive actions prevented additional casualties and enable the safe extraction of the remainder of his team."

MARTIN James Ray Brent
CD
Sergeant – 3 Princess Patricia’s Canadian Light Infantry
3 PPCLI Battle Group – JTF Afghanistan

"On 3 December 2009, Sergeant Martin was injured when his vehicle struck an improvised explosive device in Afghanistan. With the vehicle immobilized and the gunner unable to return fire, Sergeant Martin moved to the top of the vehicle to man the machinegun. From this exposed position, he provided suppressive fire to repel the attack, which allowed dismounted soldiers to break contact. Despite being injured, Sergeant Martin put his fellow soldiers first and his actions were critical to defeating the enemy."

RIDDELL, Brian
Lieutenant
OMLT – Arghandab District Afghanistan

"As a mentor to an Afghan company commander from September 2009 to April 2010, Lieutenant Riddell exhibited exceptional courage and inspirational leadership during numerous improvised explosive device attacks in the Arghandab District. With his team operating without the benefit of intimate support, he rallied his troops and enabled them to continue to be operationally effective despite suffering casualties and facing enemy fire. Lieutenant Riffell’s unwavering resolve during these difficult and chaotic events saved lives, surpassed all expectations and brought great credit to the Canadian Forces."

SAGSTUEN, Corey J.
Corporal – 3 Princess Patricia’s Canadian Light Infantry
Providing First Aid under Fire to a Wounded Colleague – JTF Afghanistan

"On 22 November 2009, a member of Corporal Sagstuen’s foot patrol was severely wounded by an improvised explosive device. Immediately following the blast, insurgents unleashed a coordinated attack on the stunned patrol. Realizing the need to provide immediate assistance to his wounded colleague, Corporal Sagstuen moved through intense enemy fire to reach the position and provide first aid. Corporal Sagstuen’s exceptional medical skill and selfless courage under fire saved the life of a fellow soldier."

DOI: 21 May 2010

“On 21 May 2010, Warrant Officer Primeau was constructing a guard tower in Afghanistan when an insurgent attack severely wounded his American colleague. Realizing they were without fire support, he returned fire with his pistol to suppress the attack long enough to move the wounded soldier and lower him to the ground. Ignoring the renewed enemy attack, he provided first aid that saved the soldier’s life. Warrant Officer Primeau’s selfless courage under fire brought great credit to the Canadian Forces.”

“On 17 April 2011, Master Corporal Charette, Forward Observation Officer, displayed boundless courage and professionalism when his patrol came under a crossfire attack in Afghanistan. He repeatedly exposed himself to fire in order to confirm the attacking positions and relayed this accurate intelligence to his commanding officer and the artillery support centre. Master Corporal Charette’s composure permitted laying the artillery pieces extremely quickly and making them available to the platoon commander to support his retreat.”

“On 17 March 2007, Sergeant, then Master Corporal, Soper’s vehicle was attacked by a suicide vehicle-borne explosive device in the Zhari District of Kandahar, Afghanistan. He received flash burns to his face and wrists and temporarily lost consciousness as a result of the blast. Upon recovery, he immediately took control of the situation, provided detailed reports and established a security cordon. Despite his injuries, he conducted an immediate approach to the blast site to render safe any unexploded ordnance and led the clearance of the site. Sergeant Soper’s selfless actions enabled the rapid evacuation of injured personnel and brought order to an otherwise chaotic and dangerous situation.”

"On May 7, 2011, shooting rang out close to an Afghanistan Police checkpoint just outside the walls of the Kandahar Provincial Response Company compound. As the shooting and the attacks around the city started to grow in intensity, the Afghan government decides to call the Kandahar Provincial Response Company to help quell the insurgent surge.

The Kandahar Provincial Response Company was a well-trained and well-led, limited-notice response force comprised primarily of Afghan police who are trained and mentored by members of Canadian Special Operations Forces Command. After brief orders were issued to the force, including their Canadian Special Operations Regiment mentors, they moved to the centre of the city to conduct a reconnaissance on the massive building they had been asked to clear by the American Force Commander. What they saw in front of them was a maze of vendor stalls and shops littered with rugs and tapestries capable of hiding even the largest enemy opposition force from sight. Over the next 24 hours, the Kandahar Provincial Response Company would face one of its greatest challenges and stretch its personnel, leadership, and mentors to its brink.

A Detachment Second in Command of the Embedded Partner Team responsible for mentoring the Kandahar Provincial Response Company was awarded a Mention In Dispatches. Throughout an intense and prolonged firefight on May 7/8, 2011, this member actively mentored and provided security, cover fire and casualty care to wounded Afghans."

“His Excellency the Right Honourable David Johnston, Governor General and Commander-in-Chief of Canada, announces the awarding of 2 Stars of Military Valour and 1 Medal of Military Valour, as well as 1 Meritorious Service Cross (to one of the recipients of the SMV), 3 Meritorious Service Medals, and 1 Mentioned-in-Despatches to members of the Canadian Special Operations Forces Command (CANSOFCOM) and the Chief of Defence Intelligence (CDI). The decorations were presented on 7 June 2013 by the Governor General, during a ceremony at Rideau Hall. General Tom Lawson, Chief of the Defence Staff, was also in attendance. The recipients were recognized for devotion to duty and acts of valour in the presence of the enemy and for military deeds performed in a highly professional manner. During the ceremony, the Chief of the Defence Staff presented the Chief of the Defence Staff Commendation to two CANSOFCOM members. For security and operational reasons, recipients’ names and citations will not be released.”

De WAAL, Victor Alexander
Major
Attack by 60 Assailants on the UN State Support Base in South Sudan

“On 17 April 2014, Major de Waal was at the UN State Support Base in South Sudan when it was attacked by some sixty assailants determined to harm a group of 5,000 civilians who had sought refuge. At great personal risk, he exposed himself to small arms fire to provide vital assessments for the Quick Reaction Force, which engaged and halted the advance of the assailants. Major de Waal acted courageously under fire in order to protect and evacuate wounded civilians.”

DAVIS, Sean
Master Corporal
Attack by 60 Assailants on the UN State Support Base in South Sudan

“Master Corporal Davis displayed exceptional courage in the face of the enemy while serving as an advisor to host nation forces. During an operational mission, his detachment came under effective sniper fire. Without hesitation, he left cover and remained exposed to enemy fire for several minutes in order to help a friendly force gunner locate and neutralize the enemy threat. Master Corporal Davis’ actions helped to quickly resolve the threat and brought great credit to the Canadian Armed Forces.”

==================================

JACQUARD, Matthew
Master Corporal
Canadian Special Operations Forces Command support to Host Nation

“While deployed on operations, Master Corporal Jacquard deliberately exposed himself to direct fire in order to engage enemy positions. He adjusted mortar rounds to effectively neutralize the threat, and quickly assessed the host nation observation post position to verify the status of fellow Canadian Special Operations Forces Command personnel before returning to the mortar position to prepare future fire missions. Master Corporal Jacquard’s intervention resulted in the neutralization of enemy positions and collective self defence for Canadian and host nation personnel.”

La SALLE, Mathieu
Sergeant
Canadian Special Operations Forces Command support to Host Nation

"In consultation with local commanders, Sergeant La Salle identified the likely axis of counter attack after a host nation division level offensive. Using his initiative, he situated his team in a vulnerable position to reinforce the fragile defensive line. He expertly commanded his team as they repelled two enemy attacks. Sergeant LaSalle's leadership and courage in the face of the enemy saved numerous lives and brought great credit to the Canadian Armed Forces."

==================================

LEBLANC, Daniel Eudor
Sergeant
Tactical acumen and timely decision-making under Fire

"During an assessment of a host nation defensive line, Sergeant Leblanc's team encountered an uncommonly high volume of enemy indirect and small arms fire. After directing his personnel to occupy a defensive position, Sergeant Leblanc took decisive action to define the enemy movement and locate enemy heavy machine gun positions engaging host nation forces. Upon confirmation that coalition fire support was not available, his team effectively engaged the enemy. Sergeant Leblanc's tactical acumen and timely decision-making prevented the potential envelopment of host nation forces."

==================================

SHRUBB, Scott Ian
Corporal
Tactical acumen and timely decision-making under Fire

"Corporal Shrubb exhibited outstanding courage and professionalism while serving on a deployed operation. While supporting host nation forces in the liberation of key objectives, Corporal Shrubb engaged the enemy to tremendous tactical effect, despite coming under effective enemy fire, and without regard for his own safety. His courageous and selfless actions were critical to mission success and saved numerous lives. Corporal Shrubb's actions have brought great credit to the Canadian Armed Forces."

“While supporting a major offensive during an operation, Sergeant Spence came under sustained and effective direct and indirect fire. Exposed to significant danger, he positively identified various enemy weapons, enabling coalition forces to effectively neutralize the threats, and allowing for the successful advance of host nation forces. Sergeant Spence’s particular attention to the coalition forces net likely prevented an airstrike that could have resulted in host nation casualties due to their proximity to the intended target.”

Awarded the Meritorious Service Medal (MSM) as per the Canada Gazette of 18 December 2010 in the rank of Master Corporal while serving in the RCAF as a SAR Tech.

“Following a large-scale enemy offensive operation against host nation forces, Master Corporal Wilson displayed remarkable courage and ingenuity in reacting to a tenuous situation. Assisting friendly forces to recapture a village held by the enemy, he expertly adjusted indirect fire from a forward observation post exposed to enemy fire. The accuracy and effectiveness allowed the host nation assault force to gain ground and forced an enemy element to withdraw. Master Corporal Wilson’s selfless dedication undoubtedly saved the lives of his comrades.”
